Notes From The President

Jerry Magliano

President's Message

I hope this message finds you all healthy and safe given the havoc COVID-19 has caused to our healthcare system, education system and economy. This has been unlike any experience most, if not all, of us have had in our lifetime. We are a resilient nation and this too will eventually pass. However, we should keep in our thoughts and prayers those families who have been severely impacted by loss of a loved one or are having to deal with the after effects of having had the virus. We should also pray that those who have lost their employment or their business can find new opportunities to support themselves and their families. To a much lesser degree, our Chapter has also been effected by the lockdown that was implemented to control spread of the virus. We have not met since last February and have had to delay our annual visit to the VA Hospital until a time it is deemed safe. About 25 of us attended our annual picnic at the DAV Hall on July 25 which went very well thanks to the work of Terrie Fox among others. Our speaker for our August 22nd luncheon will be Dr. Chris Kuehl. His take on the national and international economy going forward will be very informative given the devastation the virus has caused to our economy. I look forward to us gathering again, but only if conditions are safe.
